

DARLING DIRECTIONS

OPTION 1 from the N7

If you are coming up the N7 go past the Melkbos turnoff and the Atlantis and Philadelphia turnoff and carry on and take the Malmesbury glide off. At the yield sign at the bottom of the glide off, turn right. Turn right here if you want to go direct to Darling. You will cross over two railway lines. The first one immediately outside of Malmesbury and the second about 10 minutes later. You will pass a number of farms. Shortly after Waylands on your left you will come to a T-junction. Duckitt Nurseries will be directly in front of you. Then turn right and another three km and you will be in Darling. When you get into the village of Darling turn left into Kalkoentjie Street and follow the road around till you reach the school at the top of the hill.

OPTION 2 from the R27 (West Coast Road)

Go along the R27 past Koeberg (on your left) until you see a turnoff that says Atlantis Mamre. Turn right and travel for 10 minutes until you hit a T Junction (This road is the ring road around Atlantis and you will pass a number of turn offs including Wesfleur.). At the T junction turn left (there will be a sign for Evita se Perron" and in about 10mins you will see Duckitt Nurseries on your left and a sign that says Malmesbury. Ignore and go straight directly into Darling (approx 3 kms) When you get into the village of Darling turn into Kalkoentjie Street and follow the road around till you reach the school at the top of the hill. You should find it very easily!
